

Book Signings & Readings

ERICA TURNIPSEED

Thursday, July 10th
7:00 PM

Erica Turnipseed
A Love Noire

Read this book and hear Erica speak and you will know what has been missing from the field of contemporary African-American fiction. A Love Noire is a story many have been waiting to hear and one some have been dying to tell. It is a spicy ride through the dating scene of the young black professional and the cultural and sexual issues along the way.

Writer's Workshop: Finding the Courage to Write the Book Inside You

SUNDAY, JULY 27TH

3:00 - 5:30 PM

Using her experience as an author and educator, Anika Nailah will lead you through a series of exercises to help you gain the courage and knowledge to write the book you've always thought about writing, but didn't know how. Come with questions and an idea. Leave with tools and a plan.

Anika Nailah is the author of Free and Other Stories, a collection of short stories published by Doubleday. She is also the Founder/Director of Books Of Hope, a literacy empowerment project, that has produced 83 authors in the Boston-area community.

Advance registration preferred. Limited to 20 participants. Ms. Nailah will also be available to sign copies of her book.

Fee: $25
